

2nd REVISED AGENDA

NATIVE AMERICAN LEGISLATIVE LIAISON COMMITTEE

LEGISLATURE Tuesday, December 10, 2019 | 4:00 P.M. | Room 20 House Building

1. Committee Business

- Call to order
- Approval of the minutes of the November 1, 2019, meeting

2. Native American Education Report

Utah Code Subsection 53F-5-604(3) requires that the committee “shall annually schedule at least one meeting at which education is discussed with selected stakeholders.” Representatives of the Utah State Board of Education will address education issues affecting Native American students from a state perspective. The committee will also hear from representatives of a specific school district and a school.

- Representatives of the State Board of Education
- Representatives of the San Juan School District
- Representatives of Eagle View Elementary School
- Committee discussion/action

3. Draft legislation, “American Indian-Alaska Native Related Amendments”

This bill was discussed in the committee’s November 1 meeting. It addresses American Indian-Alaskan Native issues related to the Department of Health’s liaison.

- Senator Iwamoto
- Committee discussion/action

4. Draft legislation, “Murdered and Missing Indigenous Women, Girls, and LGBTQ+ Task Force”

This bill creates a task force to study and make recommendations, including potential legislation, regarding ways to address issues related to murdered and missing indigenous women, girls, and LGBTQ+ in Utah.

- Representative Romero
- Committee discussion/action

5. Oljato Trading Post Project

The Oljato Trading Post is a historic landmark located in the Navajo Reservation. A project is underway to preserve the post. The committee will hear from project participants and supporters who will address details of the restoration project and the need for money to carry the project through to completion.

- Participants/supporters of the Oljato Trading Post Project
- Committee discussion/action

6. Use of Native American Images and Names

In its November 1 meeting the committee heard a presentation regarding the use of Native American images and names. Chair Hinkins expressed interest in a brief follow up discussion of the issue.

- Committee discussion/action

7. Other Items/Adjourn